Once again HOMAG Canada is offering a unique insight into some of the most innovative and profitable wood-working businesses in Europe. Join us for our upcoming technology tour to Switzerland, France and Germany and discover your future.

You will get a chance to visit outstanding businesses at various production levels. See first-hand how the implementation of new technology combined with smart automation concepts does make a difference. Use the opportunity to talk directly to owners and operators and learn about their success.

The TechTour 2012 is offered all-inclusive for only CAD $ 2,950*.

*Registrations are subject to availability. Itinerary details may be subject to change. Upgrades to business class flights are available for an additional surcharge. Registrations received after August 1st, 2012 may incur additional flight surcharges.
